

LSIS Regional Sustainability Advisers

About the LSIS Regional Sustainability Advisers

Through the Leading and Learning for a Sustainable Future strategy and action plan, LSIS is working with and supporting individuals and providers in the sector to build and promote learning and resources to respond to the challenges of sustainability and carbon reduction. Our focus is on developing capacity and capability, and on sharing and embedding effective practice.

In support of this, and following an open application process, LSIS has appointed Regional Sustainability Advisers (RSAs) to help lead change in their region. The RSAs will be ambassadors for embedding sustainability into organisational strategy, practice and performance, and for developing the capacity and capability of sustainability leaders to drive change. They will build and connect with sustainability networks across their region, promote and help to embed LSIS sustainability programmes and resources, and host a half-day network event within their region.

To find your RSA and get in touch, please refer to the table below.

Vacancies currently exist for the London, South East and Yorkshire & the Humber positions, and these are being advertised at:
