

Date: 17th August 2021
Time: 10.00-12.00
Venue: Virtual via Zoom
Booking Page

AGENDA: Using COP26 to engage students with climate change and sustainability

10.00 Welcome and Introductions
Matt Woodthorpe, EAUC-Scotland

Part 1 – Engaging Students with COP26

10:10 What is COP26?
Nick Cullen, Stop Climate Chaos

10.20 Why and How Should Students Engage with COP26?

Perspective from YOUNGO
Julieta Marino Tartaglino and Cathy Yitong Li

Perspective from the Youth Climate Action Network
Katherine Priestley, Kaspar Pitblado and Bindu Bhandari

10.45 Top Tips on Running an Effective Sustainability Engagement Campaign
Matt Woodthorpe, EAUC-Scotland

10.55 COMFORT BREAK

11.05 Examples of Activity for COP26 to Engage Students

University of Leeds
Kate Lock, University of Leeds

Part 2 - Creating a Legacy: Encouraging lasting student engagement with climate change and sustainability beyond COP26

11.15 Examples of Student-led and Focused Sustainability Initiatives

Transition University of St Andrews
Alistair Macleod

Lancaster University's ECOHub
Darren Axe, Green Lancaster

11.40 External Sustainability Programme Opportunities for Student Unions

Green Impact
Sonya Peres, SOS-UK

11.50 Discussion Groups: What happens at your institution? What have you been inspired to do by today's event? Matt Woodthorpe & Rebecca Petford, EAUC-Scotland

12.00 Thanks and Close