

Merry Christmas

Our 2013 Christmas
sustainability pledges!

from  eauc

"I pledge to offset my flights for my jungle Christmas adventure - I will donate my offset to support orang-utans in Borneo (which I am hoping to see)"

Fiona Goodwin
Head of Member Services

"I pledge not to pinch so many of the fair trade chocolates in my children's Christmas stockings as I usually have to go out and buy more which is a waste!"

Iain Patton
Chief Executive

"I have challenged some friends who have pledged to only drink organic wine and beer from the local area over Christmas. So no port..."

Iain Boyd
Corporate Relationship Manager

"I pledge to use offsets and unused rolls of old wrapping paper from previous Christmases and birthdays to wrap my gifts!"

Lisa Walkley
Membership Services Manager

"I pledge to make every effort to have as much organic, locally sourced & fair trade food for Christmas dinner"

Emma-Louise Aston
Member Events and Communities Officer

"I pledge to give presents that are either handmade or not a consumable item. i.e a contribution to charity or a cool personal experience."

Hanna Plant
Scotland Project Officer

"I pledge to send only recycled Christmas cards or e-cards to all my friends and family"

Kate Aubury
Finance Officer

"I pledge to recycle all of my Christmas cards"

Kate Graham
Member Administration Officer

"I pledge to use the most sustainable modes of transport to prepare for Christmas Day shopping and visiting this year and to promote active travel."

Sarah Lee
Scotland Manager

"I pledge to try and buy sustainably produced toys for my children this Christmas."

Abbie Weaver
Member Communications Officer

What are your sustainable Christmas pledges this year?

Tweet us @theEAUC to let us know!