King's College London, Stamford Street, London, SE1 9NH,

- Welcome
- Workshop 1 - AGM

Reviewing the past year and planning for the next – with biscuits.

- Lunch
- Workshop 2 - Environmental Move for You

Presentation on an energy saving initiative at the University of Bradford, which helped implement a 33% reduction in energy bills.

This initially involved setting up an energy saving team in the School of Health Studies, using behaviour change techniques and a web-based metering system which focused on real time energy usage.

The initial trial was identified as a success when the energy supplier checked that their meters weren't broken.

- Russell Smith (Estates Manager Engineering & Building, University of Bradford),
- Hilary Pape (Physiotherapy Lecturer, School of Health Studies, University of Bradford),

- Any other business
