

Be Part of the First Ever...

Scottish Fairtrade
University and College Conference!

Monday 8 March 2010, 11:00 to 17:00

Fair Trade has been growing at an unprecedented rate, but now is the time to push it even further. Whether you're a student, lecturer, staff or just interested, come to Edinburgh to be part of the change in universities and colleges around Scotland.

Talks from:

Harriet Lamb CBE, Director of the Fairtrade Foundation

Betsy Reed, Director of the Scottish Fair Trade Forum

Palestinian Olive Oil Producer

The day will also include workshops run by staff and students from institutions that have gained Fair Trade status as well as product stalls from local suppliers of Fair Trade goods.

The event is free to attend. As is the lunch!

The conference will be hosted by Edinburgh University Students' Association and held at Teviot Row House, Bristo Square, Edinburgh, EH8 9AL

www.ed.ac.uk/maps/buildings/teviot-row-house

For Scotland to become a Fairtrade Nation, colleges and universities must help. So, come along to hear from colleagues that have gained Fair Trade status, share ideas and go back to your institution full of enthusiasm for taking Fair Trade forward.

For more information, or to book a place, e-mail Scottish.Fairtrade.Conference@googlemail.com with your contact details, noting any dietary requirements.

Event Sponsor:

SCOTMID co-operative

Scottish
Fair Trade
Forum

eusa
Edinburgh University
Students' Association

Edinburgh Napier
UNIVERSITY